• Explain:- We use the Past Simple Tense when we talk about actions which happened at a defenite time in the past. If we have a regular form of a verb in a sentence, we add 'ed'. Irregular Forms should be memorized.

145) Sy next October, I _____ (to finish) the research.

 \odot will be finished

 \odot will be finishing

- \odot will finish
- \odot will have finished

Explain:- The Future Perfect helps to express the idea that one action will happen before another one or the certain time point in the future.

146) 🗘 The Mona Lisa _____ (to paint) in 1503-1505.

- \odot painted
- \odot is painted
- \odot was painted
- \odot paints

• Explain:- When we don't know who carries out the action, or it is obvious or unimportant to us, we use the Passive voice. The Passive is formed: BE + Past Participle. In this sentence the action took place at a certain time in the past, so we use the Past Simple Passive.

147) Orece has _____ money by selling luxury cars.

- \odot made
- \odot given
- ⊙ got

Explain:- We Present Continuous in case of changing situations

164) In the cafe we _____(to try) some delicious food, ______(to drink) some wine and then we ______(to walk)a lot in the city centre.

- \bigodot were trying/were drinking/were walking
- ⊙ had tried / drank / were walking
- ⊙ tried/drank/walked
- ⊙ had tried/had drunk/walked

Explain:- When we talk about actions which happened one after the other in the past we use the Past Simple Tense.

165) Ourrel have realised too late that he _____ (to wait) for Jill for more that 3 hours when her aircraft lands.

- ⊙ will wait
- \odot will have been waiting
- \odot will have waited
- \bigcirc will be waiting

• Explain:- The Future Perfect Continuous (like the Future Perfect) expresses the idea that an action will continue up until another one or certain time point in the Future. But the Future Perfect Continuous is more concentrated on the duration. We use it when it is important for us to emphasise 'how long' smth will be in progress in the future: for an hour, for a week, for a year, etc.

- ⊙ had happened / was swimming / saw
- ⊙ was happening / was swimming / was seeing
- ⊙ happened / swam / saw
- \bigcirc happened / was swimming / saw

Explain:- 1. 'last year' is a hint to use the Past Simple: happened. 2. For a longer action in the past we use the Past Continuous and for a short one - the Past Simple: was swimming / saw 225) ♦ By the time Katie _____ (to leave) she _____ (to be) in Rome for a year.

 \odot leaves / will be

 \odot leaves / will have been

• Explain:- Sometimes we need to change a sentence from the Active Voice into the Passive Voice. We can also know a person who carries out the action. In this case we use the Passive Voice and form a sentence according to this rule: Subject - Be+ Past Participle - Preposition 'BY' - Agent (who or what carries out the action). In this sentence the action took place at a certain time in the past, so we use the Past Simple Passive.

227) 🛇 I'm so tired. I need to _____ a walk in the park.

 \odot make

 \odot get

⊙ take

⊙ do

Explain:- We say 'to take a walk'.

228) \bigcirc _____ (to be attentive to probable risk) icicles on the roof.

- waited / watched / forgot
- \odot was waiting / was watching / forgot
- \odot waited / was watching / forgot
- \bigcirc had waited / watched / forgot

• Explain:- 1, 2. We use the Past Continuous to show that some action was in progress at a certain time in the past - was watching TV from 7 till 10 o'clock. 3. We use the Past Simple for actions which were finished in the past - forgot

245) Sy next October, Jill _____ (to receive) her drivers's license.

 \odot will be received

 \odot is going to receive

- \odot will receive
- \odot will have received

• Explain:- We use the Future Perfect to show that smth will happen before a certain time in the future.

 \bigcirc has already been writing / has been checking it out

 \bigcirc already writes / is checking it out

 \bigcirc has already written / has checked it out

⊙ has already written / has been checking it out

Explain:- 1. 'Already' shows us that the action is complete and we see the result in the present. This is why the Present Perfect is an appropriate tense for the first part of the sentence. 2. 'For two hours' and 'Don't interrupt her' shows that the process (has been checking it out) is still in progress. It started in the past and continues up in the present, therefore we use the Present Perfect Continuous.

⊙ phenomena

 \odot phenomenae

⊙ phenomenon

 \odot phenomenons

• Explain:- The noun 'phenomenon' has the irregular plural form: PHENOMENON -PHENOMENA

298) O I haven't seen my elder sister for _____ years.

⊙ few

 \odot any

 \odot every

⊙ many

Explain:- We use 'any' in interrogative and negative sentences. 'Many' is used before plural countable nouns and 'few' - before plural uncountable ones. 'Every' doesn't relate to the meaning.

299) ♦ Express disappointment with the present situation: Nigel has to get up early every morning. He doesn't like it.

 \odot Nigel wishes he didn't have to get up early every morning.

 \odot Nigel would get up early every morning if he liked it.

⊙ If only Nigel got up early every morning he would like it.

 \odot Nigel would like to get up early every morning if he had to.

Explain:- To express disappointment with the present situation we usually use the construction [I + wish + Past Simple]. Other answers do not relate to the meaning.

- \odot My uncle is a dark-eyed tall middle-aged man.
- My uncle is a middle-aged tall dark-eyed man.
- My uncle is a tall middle-aged dark-eyed man.

• Explain:- There is a certain word order in statements with the Past Simple Tense: Subject - Verb - Object. When we need to use many adjectives in one sentence, they should be placed in the following order: Opinion - Size - Age - Shape - Colour - Origin - Material. 'Tall' is a size, 'middle-aged' - the age and 'dark-eyed' - the colour.

302) ♀ _____ Himalayas, which are situated in South Asia, is one of the longest mountain ranges in the world.

S. Explain:- We use 'the' before mountain ranges.

303) \bigcirc She _____ (to be) a nice girl. But now she _____ (to be) so rude.

- \bigcirc is / has been
- \odot is / is being
- \odot is being / is
- \bigcirc has been / is

• Explain:- 1. We use the Present Simple to talk about things in general, common regular situations and behaviour. 2. Some state verbs can be used in continuous form with the change of meaning: 'she is nice' is a personal characteristic / 'she is being rude' is her behaviour at the moment.

304) S When I _____ (to come) home I _____ (to see) nobody. It _____ (to seem) like everyone _____ (to go) not less than an hour before.

- \odot came / saw / seemed / went
- \odot had come / had seen / seemed / had gone
- \odot came / saw / seemed / had gone
- \odot was coming / saw / had seemed / had gone

Explain:- We use the Past Simple Tense when we talk about actions which happened one after the other in the past: came - saw - seemed. 'Before' shows us that the last action happened some time earlier than actions in the first part. The Past Perfect helps us carry out this idea.

312) Stred broke a porcelain vase _____.

- \odot accidentful
- \odot accidentally
- \odot accidenty
- \odot accidental

• Explain:- We use adverbs to describe time, degree, manner, etc. In other words adverbs help us get more information about the action or a place (where, when, how, how often, etc.) They are formed by adding '-ly' or '-ily' to the adjective. Some forms should be memorized: accidentally.

313) \bigcirc He refused _____ (to tell) me the truth.

- \odot to tell
- ⊙ tell

- be) to Portugal.
 - \odot travelled / never was
 - \odot has travelled / has never been
 - \odot travelled / has never been
 - \odot travels / has never been

Explain:- 1. 'Last year' shows us that the action was complete in the past, therefore we use the Past Simple. 2. We use the Present Perfect for actions which started in the past and continue up to the present. She has never travelled to Portugal - it means that she didn't visit that country in the past and this situation is still actual for the present.

324) ♦ As soon as Jake _____ (to answer), he _____ (to realize) his mistake.

- \bigcirc had been answered / realized
- \bigcirc had answered / had realized
- \odot had answered / realized
- \bigcirc had answered / had been realizing

 \odot They took a kitten small black home.

 \odot They took a small black kitten home.

 \odot They took a black small kitten home.

 \odot Home they took home a black small kitten.

• Explain:- There is a certain word order in statements: Subject - Verb - Object. When we need to use many adjectives in one sentence, they should be placed in the following order: Opinion - Size - Age - Shape - Colour - Origin - Material. 'Small' is a characteristic of size and 'black' - is a characteristic of colour.

362) ♥ Transfer this Active Voice sentence into the Passive one: 'The Mona Lisa' is _____ real materpiece.

⊙ a

 \odot the

⊙ an

• Explain:- We use the article 'a' with singular countable nouns when we talk about them in general. 'An' is used before words starting with sounds [a], [e], [i], [o], [u].

363) ♦ When I _____ (to quarrel) with my sister she just _____ (to stop) talking to me. She _____ (always / to ignore) me!

⊙ has quarrelled / has stopped / always ignores

 \odot am quarrelling / stops / has always ignored

 \bigcirc quarrel / has stopped / is always ignoring

⊙ quarrel / stops / is always ignoring

• Explain:- 1. When we talk about common, regular situations in the present we use the Present Simple: we quarrel, she stops. 2. We often use the Present Continuous to express our negative attitude to a situation: she's always ignoring me!

364) O Jake _____ (to come) home totally exhausted. He _____ (to drive) all day long.

365) ♥ I believe that our team ____(to take) the first place in a volleyball championship tomorrow.

 \odot takes

 \odot is taking

 \odot is going to take

 \odot will take

• Explain:- We use the Future Simple Tense when we make predictions, talk about desires and hopes connected with the future.

366) Someone did it for me yesterday.

- \odot I had done it yesterday.
- \odot I had it done yesterday.

 \odot It had been done for me by someone yesterday.

 \odot Someone had been done for me by it yesterday.

• Explain:- We use the Passive Causative to talk about services that will be done or were done for us by someone else. We form the Passive Causative with the help of two structures: [have / get + smth + past participle]. According to grammar it would be correct to use answer 3, but in everyday language it's mostly common to use the Passive Causative form. Then, answer 1 has another meaning. Compare: I had it done – someone did it for me / I had done it - I did it myself.

367) O Honey, you are ill. _____ a medicine, please.

 \odot have

 \odot get

⊙ take

 \odot give

⊙ is leaving / haven't bought

⊙ leaves / haven't bought

⊙ will leave / didn't buy

 \bigcirc has left / haven't bought

Explain:- 1. We use the Present Simple to talk about scheduled events and habitual actions. 2. We use «still» to refer to unfinished actions, especially when we expected to finish them earlier. The Present Perfect expresses this idea completely.

384) O That red car _____ (to belong) to Jim for 3 years before he _____ (to sell) it.

1200

 \bigcirc had belonged / sold

 \bigcirc had been belonging / sold

- \odot belonged / sold
- \odot had belonged / had sold

• Explain:- 1. According to the meaning it would be correct to use the Past Perfect Continuous for the first part because it is obviously important for the speaker to emphasize the duration of the process here: for 3 years. But we remember that non- continuous verbs cannot be used with '-ing'. So it is correct to choose the Past Perfect Tense. 2. We use the Past Simple for completed actions in the past.

385) Sessica (to study) for 6 years when she finally graduates.

 \odot will be studying

 \odot will study

- \odot is going to study
- \odot will have been studying

Explain:- The Future Perfect Continuous (like the Future Perfect) expresses the idea that an action will continue up until another one or certain time point in the Future. But the Future Perfect Continuous is more concentrated on the duration. We use it when it is important for us to emphasise 'how long' smth will be in progress in the future: for an hour, for a week, for a year, etc.

498) C I'm going to the supermarket to pick up food and drink. Is there _____ you need?

- \bigcirc nothing
- \odot something
- \odot anything
- \odot everything

Explain:- We use 'something' to refer to things in affirmative sentences, while 'anything' in negative and interrogative ones. 'Everything' and 'nothing' do not relate to the meaning of the sentence.

499) S Express disappointment with the present situation: Garry has a cat allergy.

- \odot Garry wouldn't have had a cat allergy.
- \odot Garry wishes he hadn't had a cat allergy.
- \odot Garry wishes he didn't have a cat allergy.
- \odot Garry wouldn't have a cat allergy.

• Explain:- To express disappointment with the present situation we usually use the construction [I + wish + Past Simple]. Other answers do not relate to the meaning.

500) O Use a prefix to make a word negative: rational

 \odot distational

 \odot irrational

 \odot inrational

 \odot unrational

Explain:- We say 'irrational - irrational'

501) O Choose a sentence with the right word order

 \odot Kate does rarely visit the gym.

 \odot Kate does visit the gym rarely .

 \odot Does rarely Kate visit the gym.

 \odot Rarely does Kate visit the gym.

• Explain:- When we want to speak in a more formal and literary way or we want to] emphasize some idea in the sentence, we use the inversion. In this case the speaker wanted to point out the adverb 'rarely'. We put it in the first place. We place the auxiliary verb after the adverb 'rarely'. So the word order is: [adverb — auxiliary — subject — verb — object]

 \odot see / have finally replied / waited

 \odot see / finally replied / was waiting

⊙ see / have finally replied / have been waiting

⊙ am seeing / are finally replying / had been waiting

• Explain:- 1. When we use 'see' in the meaning of 'ability to see with our eyes' we use it in the form of the Present Simple. 2. When we see in the present the result of the action which started in the past and continued up to the certain moment in the present we use the Present Perfect tense. 3. We use the Present Perfect Continuous to emphasize the duration of the action which started in the past and continues up to the present.

505) \bigcirc _____ (you / to come) to us to celebrate the date? We _____ (to be married) for 5 years on April 3rd.

⊙ Do you come / will have been married

 \bigcirc Will you come / will be married

• Will you come / will have been married

• Will you come / are going to be married

• Explain:- 1. When we make predictions or simple statements about the future we use the Future Simple. 2. We use the Future Perfect to talk about actions which will be completed in the future up to the certain time point: when the 3rd of April comes it would mean that 5 years have passed since their wedding.

506) ♦ Connect two sentences using the Passive voice: Thank you all for electing me as a leader of the team. It is a great honor for me.
